TERMS & CONDITIONS (For Overseas Job Application – Honest Group International)

- I hereby authorize Honest Group International to submit my original documents/certificates to the respective embassies or consulates for attestation, visa endorsement, or other legal formalities related to overseas employment.
- I solemnly declare that I do not have any pending legal or criminal cases against me in any civil or criminal court in India or abroad.
- I confirm that I am applying for an overseas job through Honest Group International with the full consent and knowledge of my family.
- I understand and accept that if I withdraw from the recruitment process after completion of my medical test, visa processing, MOFA registration, or after issuance of my visa or air ticket for any personal, family, or official reason, I am liable to reimburse Honest Group International for all costs, fees, and service charges incurred on my behalf.
- I agree that I am solely responsible for resigning from my current job in India after applying for overseas employment through Honest Group International. The agency will not be held liable for any consequences resulting from my resignation.
- I accept that Honest Group International is not responsible for the safety of my original documents in case of loss or damage during courier dispatch or due to any unforeseen event.
- I agree to collect my original documents and visa within 90 days of interview selection/rejection or visa validity expiry. Honest Group International will not be liable for any loss of documents if not collected within the stipulated period.
- I agree not to accept any other job offer from another agency or company once my application is under process with Honest Group International, unless I have officially withdrawn from the process and all dues are cleared.
- If I decline the job offer after visa endorsement, I understand that visa cancellation may take up to 90 days, and I am liable to pay all related cancellation and documentation charges as applicable.
- If I receive the visa-stamped passport and fail to travel, I understand that I am responsible for all legal consequences that may arise from such a decision.
- In case I am deported or returned to India due to health issues or any other reason, I accept that Honest Group International will not be held responsible.
- I declare under oath that I have read, understood, and been explained these terms in a language I understand. I will be legally responsible for any violations of the above clauses.
- I confirm that I do not have any employment ban or blacklist from Middle East countries. If any such issues arise, I accept full responsibility.
